

J. Wilkes

PASO ROBLES HIGHLANDS DISTRICT 2017 KENT'S RED

WINEMAKER: Wes Hagen

CASES PRODUCED: 1,000 cases

APPELLATION: Paso Robles Highlands District

ALCOHOL: 14.1%

pH: 3.24

TITRATABLE ACID: 6.96 g/L

BLEND: 90% Barbera, 10% Lagrein

AROMATICS

Blackberry, huckleberry dominate the incredibly seductive, primary aromas. Reminiscent of a freshly baked berry pie.

PALATE

Delivers dry but incredibly fruity dark berry flavors - bright and deep but elegant.

FOOD PAIRING

Anything BBQ or picnic related - cheese and charcuterie, burgers, hot dogs, steak, BBQ pork or chicken. Beef stew would be amazing.

AGING

The charm of this wine is in it's youthful fruit and bright, fermentative aromas. Drink now!

WINES OF CHARACTER, WINES OF PLACE.